

Affiliate Promotional Guide

Welcome Kaplan Test Prep affiliates! This guide is meant to help you promote Kaplan Test Prep in the most effective way possible and in turn, boost commission earnings. With Kaplan’s wide variety of prep options available for several tests, choosing the best promotional assets to feature on your website can be a tricky task. This guide will make it easy!

The best way to promote Kaplan Test Prep to your visitors is to educate them on the various prep courses & products available and direct them to the proper landing page to make their enrollment as easy as possible. Here are some recommended ways to integrate this content into your site:

- Create a “Kaplan Test Prep resources” subpage to showcase content
- Add content to an existing “resources” or “study tips” page
- Write a blog post dedicated to Kaplan prep courses

You also want to make this content easy to find on your website, such as through a homepage link, to maximize traffic.

To help you create relevant content, this guide contains descriptions & the relevant links for all of Kaplan’s most popular prep courses and products, organized by test. The course names link to the course landing page on kaptest.com, where you can read more detailed information about the course. The yellow highlighted links provided will take you straight to the text link tracking code in LinkShare for you to copy/paste onto your website. Just make sure you’re logged into LinkShare in your browser for these links to work!

To get started, click the test prep area that you want to promote on your site:
